E. H. Knoche, Acting Director Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Knoche:

We have been made aware of the fact that the Central Intelligence Agency is exempt from the requirements for depository distribution of its publications.

Our recent letter requesting copies of the "Reference Aid" series is hereby withdrawn.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

C. A. LaBARRE

ASSISTANT PUBLIC PRINTER (Superintendent of Documents)

In reply refer to: 701 0297 January 13, 1977

Mr. George Bush Director Central Intelligence Agency Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

Under provisions of the United States Code, Title 44, Chapter 19, Depository Library Program, the Superintendent of Documents distributes United States Government publications free to officially designated depository libraries in the United States and its possessions.

Section 1903 requires Government agencies to furnish copies of publications obtained elsewhere than from the Government Printing Office to the Superintendent of Documents for distribution to depository libraries. According to this Section,

"The number thus delivered may not be restricted by any statutory limitation in force on August 9, 1962... The cost of printing and binding those publications distributed to depository libraries obtained elsewhere than from the Government Printing Office, shall be borne by components of the Government responsible for their issuance; those requisitioned from the Government Printing Office shall be charged to appropriations provided the Superintendent of Documents for that purpose."

Our records indicate that the "Reference Aid" series publication produced by your agency, is not being distributed to depository libraries at the present time. In an effort to comply with the law, we request that you send 1250 copies of the next issue prepared and published, and 700 copies thereafter until a count can be established. Please send the publications to:

U. S. Government Printing Office
Public Documents Warehouse
5236 Eisenhower Avenue
Alexandria, Virginia 22304
Marked: Depository copies

Since the number of copies needed changes from time to time, we will notify you as necessary to keep the information current.

The enclosed Joint Committee Print, "Government Depository Libraries," explains the program. For further information, you may contact Mrs. Mae Collins, Chief of Library or Mr. Norman Barbee, Library Administrator, at the Eisenhower Avenue address (Telephone (703) 557-2145 or 2146).

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely yours,

C. A. LaBARRE
